EXECUTIVE SEARCH

VICE PRESIDENT FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING AT NORTHWEST FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE

Northwest Florida State College announces an executive search for a proven, innovative academic administrator to serve as Vice President for Teaching and Learning, the chief academic and articulation officer of the college. Applications and nominations are accepted through this recruitment process.

THE LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Northwest Florida State College (NWF State College) is a multi-campus institution serving nearly 12,000 students and offers associate and baccalaureate degree programs in addition to vocational certificates and adult education.

NWF State College has been named one of the nation's 150 top community colleges by the Aspen Institute College Excellence Program every year since the inception of the program. It was recently ranked #8 on schools.com's list of best community colleges in Florida based on factors such as cost, graduation rate, and flexibility.

Directly accountable to the College President, Dr. Devin Stephenson, the Vice President for Teaching and Learning plays a positive leadership role in helping the college effectively manage change in an environment of continuous improvement.

As the chief academic and articulation officer, this administrator must be a proven visionary, strategic, innovative, and collaborative leader. The individual assigned to this position assumes duties and responsibilities that require electronic accessibility for college business during non-college operating hours and/or when off campus during regular duty hours.

NORTHWEST FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE

Northwest Florida State College has a distinguished history of providing outstanding educational opportunities for students. Located in the heart of Florida's Emerald Coast between Pensacola and Panama City, the college was established by the Florida Legislature in 1963 as Okaloosa-Walton Junior College. Its current name reflects the expansion of the college's mission to provide educational access and opportunity for success to the region.

NWF State College's service area stretches from the Gulf of Mexico to the Alabama state line and is centered primarily in Okaloosa and Walton counties. Two Air Force installations, Eglin AFB, including Duke Field, and Hurlburt Field, are in the service area.

The college is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

In addition to the picturesque 264-acre main campus located in Niceville, the college operates a campus in Fort Walton Beach, the Chautauqua Center in DeFuniak Springs, the Robert L.F. Sikes Education Center in Crestview, and centers at Hurlburt Field and in South Walton County.

NWF State College offers four baccalaureate degrees: Bachelor of Applied Science in Management and Supervision; Bachelor of Applied Science in Project Management; Bachelor of Science in Education, including early childhood, elementary education, middle grades general science, and middle grades mathematics; and Bachelor of Science in Nursing. More bachelor's degree programs are being developed.

The college's Associate in Arts degree provides full transfer of credit for those students who plan to pursue a bachelor's degree. The Associate in Science degrees have companion certificates that may be used as a career path toward the AS degree.

Courses for adults in literacy, English for Speakers of Other Languages, Adult Basic Education, vocational preparatory/job readiness skills, and GED preparation programs are also available.

Dual enrollment allows high school students to enroll and earn college credit and credit for high school graduation simultaneously. This is offered to public, private, and home-schooled students.

In its latest year of record, the college's 2014-2015 Total Revenue was in excess of $48 million. State funding represented 40 percent of the total, while student fees and financial aid were 43 percent, and other revenues/transfers were 17 percent.

NWF State College offers intercollegiate baseball, softball and men's and women's basketball programs that consistently compete for conference, regional, and national titles. In 2015, the Raiders won the national NJCAA Division I championships in Men's Baseball and Men's Basketball.

CAMPUSES, CENTERS, AND COLLEGIATE HIGH SCHOOL OF NORTHWEST FLORIDA STATE COLLEGE

Niceville Campus

The 264-acre Niceville campus is located less than 70 miles from Panama City and Pensacola. The campus houses the College's central administration as well as a variety of other programs and services.

Academic programs range from adult literacy to a wide range of academic degrees and instructional offerings.

The Learning Resources Center (LRC) provides a full range of library, database, and reference materials and services for all students in-person, online, and via intra-library loan. The LRC also houses the college's Distance Learning/eCampus programs, serving more than 1,200 students per year.

The 75,000-square-foot, three-story Student Services Center (SSC), combined with the Student Activities Center, is the central hub of student and community life on campus. The Student Activities Center is home to the Barnes & Noble bookstore and Starbucks Cafe, Career Resource Center, Academic Success Center, and more. The Academic Success Center provides tutoring, advising, and distance learning resources.

The Mattie Kelly Fine and Performing Arts Center on the Niceville campus offers an annual series of traveling Broadway shows and is home to the college's Northwest Florida Symphony Orchestra, the region's premiere professional orchestra.

Fort Walton Beach Campus

The Fort Walton Beach Campus operates in conjunction with the University of West Florida, sharing the facilities and same general location, to provide higher education to the residents of Fort Walton Beach and surrounding areas. The campus offers a wide variety of programs, courses required by specific programs, seminars/workshops, and community activities.

Located in Okaloosa County, the Fort Walton Beach Campus offers educational opportunities similar to those at the main campus. These include computer and science laboratories, a library (maintained by the University of West Florida), and student services, such as admissions/registration, advising, and testing.

As part of the college's commitment to provide leadership and support for the economic and workforce development of Okaloosa and Walton Counties, the Campus houses various economic development programs including the Economic Development Council of Okaloosa County, the Technology Coast Manufacturing and Engineering Network, and other endeavors.

Hurlburt Field Center

This center provides college credit courses and other programs designed to meet the needs of Hurlburt Field personnel. Housed at the base education center, the center provides advising, admissions/registration, financial aid information, and placement testing.

The Center has a special program that allows military members to expand a Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) degree to a second college degree with as few as 15 additional college credits from NWF State College. As a Service member's Opportunity College, NWF State College allows degree completion in the event of a Permanent Change of Station move.

Chautauqua Center

The Chautauqua Center in DeFuniak Springs serves Walton County residents

of all ages and levels of education – from adult basic education to college degree programs. The center provides services free-of-charge to adults who do not have a high school diploma, including adult literacy programs, English-as-a-Second-Language, and courses to prepare for the GED exam. An innovative distance learning program provides adult basic education and other services by the Internet. A Family Literacy program provides literacy activities and instruction for the entire family.

South Walton Campus

This campus serves the residents of South Walton County, Destin, Freeport, and surrounding areas with college credit and non-credit programs, adult basic education, college preparatory courses, academic advising, admissions, registration, financial aid information, and placement testing. The center also houses the offices for AmeriCorps and the Choctawhatchee Basin Alliance (CBA), an environmental organization operated under the auspices of the college.
