EXECUTIVE SEARCH AND CONSULTING
Southern Utah University, the state’s premier public university of liberal arts and sciences, has launched a national search for the Dean of the School of Business. The Search Committee invites applications, nominations, and expressions of interest.

The Opportunity

Southern Utah University (SUU) is seeking an expert in engaged learning, an academician experienced in high-impact learning practices, a scholar, and an experienced leader to serve as the next Dean of the School of Business. The School of Business offers undergraduate and graduate degrees and consists of four academic departments: Accounting; Economics and Finance; Management, Marketing and Hospitality; and Military Science.

The School of Business was initially accredited by the Association for the Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB-International) in 2006. It has successfully reaffirmed this accreditation twice, in 2011 and 2016. The School of Business offers an experiential learning environment that combines theory and practice. The faculty prepares students to become fully engaged, productive, and ethical leaders in the local, national, and global environments.

For Spring 2017, the School had 1,017 students enrolled, including 872 in undergraduate programs and 145 in graduate programs. Within the business school, 69 percent of the students were male and more than 80 percent attended full time.

The School has four undergraduate degree programs – Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing – and two master’s degree programs – Accountancy and Business Administration - that are accredited by AACSB-International. Four additional undergraduate degree programs in Economics; Hotel, Resort, and Hospitality Management; Business Education; and Aviation (AAS degree) are available.

All of the undergraduate programs offer minors, in addition to minors in Military Science and Marketing Education. Certificates can be earned in International Business (for MBA and MACC students) and Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management.

The educational opportunities include internships, research participation and presentation, entrepreneurship competitions, and study abroad programs.

In its 2017 edition of Best Colleges,
The University recently secured the financial resources to construct a new Business building. The new Dean will assist the University in programming this new facility.

The Position

As the senior administrative officer of the School of Business, the Dean is responsible for all functions and matters relating to the School of Business. Reporting to the Provost, the Dean serves at the pleasure of the President. The Dean may be tenured in accord with policies of the Board of Trustees and the University.

Responsibilities of the Dean include:

- Ensure alignment of the School with the University vision and mission.
- Coordinate with the development arm of the University to initiate and participate in effective fundraising efforts for the School of Business.
- Assist the university and community with economic and entrepreneurship goals.
- Nurture industry relationships that provide student internships, graduate career opportunities, scholarships, and other fundraising prospects.
- Administer and coordinate programs of high academic integrity and the annual schedule of course offerings.
- Recruit and retain a high quality faculty who are passionate about preparing students for careers and graduate school.
- Recommend appointment, salary, promotion, and tenure of faculty members after consultation with appropriate unit/department chairs.
- Partner with the Enrollment Management division of the university to recruit, retain, and graduate high-quality students.
- Foster community relations to support the School of Business.
- Coordinate and manage the activities of the School of Business advisory council(s), committees, and boards.
- Work with staff to prepare reports as required by accrediting bodies and other constituents.
- Craft marketing strategies to promote the School of Business.
- Oversee efficient and effective internal operations of the School.
- Serve as the medium of communication for all official business of the School with University officers, students and the community.
- Exercise general supervision over the work and conduct of faculty, staff, and the students of the School of Business.
- Nominate candidates for degrees and other awards.
- Foster existing and new international partnerships and opportunities.
- Prepare and submit to the Provost an annual report describing the work of the School of Business.

Qualifications & Characteristics

The next Dean must have an earned terminal degree, preferably in a business field from an AACSB - International accredited school. Other degrees and qualifications also will be considered. There is a strong preference for candidates with experience with promoting entrepreneurship and economic development.

Other qualifications include:

- U.S. News & World Report ranked SUU #49 (tie) in Best Online Graduate Business Program (excluding MBA) and #59 (tie) in Best Online MBA Program.
- Southern Utah University is a dynamic teaching and learning community that engages students in experiential education leading to personal growth, civic responsibility, and professional excellence.
