Announcing a National Search for the Associate Vice President for Development

Associate Vice President for Development

The University of Alabama, one of the nation's top public research universities and Alabama's flagship institution, invites applications and nominations for the position of Associate Vice President for Development. This is an exceptional leadership opportunity for a well-experienced fundraising professional to plan and direct a broad-reaching development program in support of The University of Alabama.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Reporting to the Vice President for Advancement, the Associate Vice President for Development provides strategic leadership, direction, and management for The University of Alabama's major fundraising programs. The Associate Vice President is responsible for securing the necessary financial and volunteer support to sustain and develop The University of Alabama. This position ensures administrative oversight of the University's major gifts, corporate and foundation fundraising, annual giving, and capital campaigns.

The Associate Vice President for Development is a key member of the leadership team and an active participant in making strategic decisions affecting fundraising for UA. The Associate Vice President is also responsible for developing specific metrics and performance plans that hold each unit accountable for overall fundraising goals. In addition, the AVP for Development carries a limited major gift portfolio of prospects directed by the Vice President for Advancement.

Primary Responsibilities

- Provide strategic leadership and direction to all academic fundraising teams to drive increased development activity and total contributions.

- Develop short- and long-range strategic plans for fundraising efforts.
- Develop goals for each area of responsibility and identify resources needed for goals to be realized.
- Design strategies and coordinate programs necessary to ensure continued fundraising success by providing advice, analysis, and recommendations to decision-makers on prioritization, planning, and policy issues in the area of Development.
- Create and coordinate programs for selecting, recruiting, and training volunteer leadership to assist in University development activities – particularly those who participate in fundraising.
- Help recruit, develop, and retain high-performing Development staff.
- Provide formal performance appraisals to staff to inspire accountability, success, continuous improvement, and professional growth.
- Collaborate with other AVPs within Advancement, including Alumni Affairs, Planned Giving, and Advancement Services, on all fundraising activities.

- Liaison with the Crimson Tide Foundation staff to ensure coordination of prospect management and development efforts with Athletics.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates must have a bachelor's degree and 12 years of experience or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

Preferred Qualifications

- Advanced degree
- Demonstrated successful and progressively responsible fundraising management experience in higher education

Associate Vice President for Development

- Major, comprehensive or capital campaign management experience

Other Requirements

- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as a part of a collaborative team
- Must be a creative and effective leader with expertise in strategic planning, program implementation, personnel management, and accountability
- Must be able to work in a fast-paced office environment
- Ability to travel in and out of state
