The Opportunity

FGCU is seeking three nursing instructors for the BSN program. Individuals with clinical practice experience in medical/surgical, community and public health, or mental health nursing are especially encouraged to apply. All of the Instructor I, BSN positions are 12-month, on-campus continuing appointments.

The Instructor's primary role will be teaching theory, laboratory, and clinical courses in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program, based on qualifications and experience in nursing. All faculty are expected to be excellent teachers, responsive to changing professional needs and committed to innovative delivery of instruction resulting in improved student learning. All faculty are expected to effectively use technology including distance learning, to produce peer reviewed scholarship, and to provide service to the College, University, and Community. Teaching assignments may be on the main campus or at off-campus sites and clinical agencies within the region.

Typical duties may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Teach theory, laboratory, simulation, and clinical courses as assigned each academic year. (Fall, Spring and Summer semesters)
- Provide professional academic advisement/mentoring to students.
- Contribute to course and/or curriculum development.
- Participate in student recruitment and admission selection.
- Engage in scholarly activities at the level required to ultimately apply for promotion to the next higher Instructor rank.

- Actively participate in School, Program and College faculty meetings, and provide service to the University, College, School, Program, and professional community as career advances.
- Actively participate in program accreditation and continuous improvement activities.
- Function as an effective, active, and collegial team member.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Required Qualifications

- Graduate degree in nursing from a nationally accredited nursing program and regionally accredited institution or equivalent accreditation (must be awarded before the start date)
- Minimum of three years of practice experience as a licensed registered nurse
- Licensed, or eligible for licensure, as a registered nurse in the State of Florida
- Current Basic Life Support (BLS) certification for healthcare providers
- Valid driver's license to travel to off-campus sites and clinical agencies within the region

Preferred Qualifications

- Five or more years of RN practice experience
- Medical/surgical, community and public health, or mental health nursing experience
- Evidence of scholarly writing
- Experience teaching in a nursing program
- Experience with simulation in nursing education
- Experience with the development and delivery of online coursework

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Demonstrated expertise in nursing knowledge and clinical nursing practice
- Committed to engaged learning and teaching
- Strong communication skills
- Strong computer skills using web-based applications and Microsoft Office
- Ability to actively collaborate both within and outside the University in the development and delivery of instruction resulting in improved student learning
- Commitment to continued scholarship as well as service to the University, College, School, and community
- Competence in use of technology in teaching and distance learning

Florida Gulf Coast University is committed to establishing and maintaining an inclusive working and learning environment in which students, faculty, administrators, staff, curriculum, social activities, governance, and all other aspects of the campus life reflect a diverse, multi-cultural, and international worldview.

At FGCU, we collectively stand against any individual or group that practices any form of racism, discrimination, intolerance, hate expressions, or disrespect. We are committed to preparing students to understand, live among, appreciate, and work in an inherently diverse country and world made up of people with different ethnic and racial backgrounds, religious beliefs, abilities, ages, gender identities, sexual orientations, socio-economic status, cultural traditions, family statuses, and military backgrounds. FGCU strives to hire great people from a wide variety of backgrounds, not just because it's the right thing to do, but because it makes our University stronger. The University community recognizes the importance of a diverse and inclusive institution and holds these ideals as paramount for the current and future success of the institution.

We seek colleagues who promote and embrace diversity, equity, and inclusion. We encourage individuals from diverse backgrounds to apply for this position as we believe that our University will grow and move forward through a commitment of equality for all.
