LIBERTY UNIVERSITY, one of the largest private, non-profit universities in the United States, seeks Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioners for adjunct PMHNP faculty positions for the current academic year. Applications and nominations are now being accepted.

The University

Founded in 1971, Liberty University is an accredited evangelical liberal arts institution. It has 17 colleges and schools, more than 100,000 students, and over 600 programs of study from the certificate to the doctoral level. Over 400 of these programs are available online to students around the globe, including those serving in the U.S. military.

The beautiful 7,000-acre campus in Lynchburg, VA, has more than 350 buildings, which are equipped with state-of-the-art teaching and research resources.

Liberty faculty are mentors as well as distinguished educators. They have real-world experience, advanced degrees from some of the world's most respected schools, and a strong commitment to the Christian faith.

The University has been paving the way in distance education since the mid-1980s. Today, students access course content in Blackboard and over 750,000 electronic books, journals, and peer-reviewed articles.

Liberty is ranked in the top 1% of more than 2,100 online colleges and universities for academic quality, affordability, and accessibility by BestColleges.com — and ranked as the #2 online school in America by Niche.com.

Candidates must be committed to the evangelical standards and mission of Liberty University. Finalists will complete Liberty's online application that requires agreement with the University's faith statement and a letter from their pastor. A copy of Liberty's faculty application form is available for review at https://www.liberty.edu/media/1312/applications/FacultyApp-08042009_Final.pdf.

STATEMENT OF MISSION AND PURPOSE

Maintaining the vision of the founder, Dr. Jerry Falwell, Liberty University develops Christ-centered men and women with the values, knowledge, and skills essential to impact the world.

Through its residential and online programs, services, facilities, and collaborations, the University educates men and women who will make important contributions to their workplaces and communities, follow their chosen vocations as callings to glorify God, and fulfill the Great Commission.

Liberty University will:

1. Emphasize excellence in teaching and learning.
2. Foster university-level competencies in communication, critical thinking, information literacy, and mathematics in all undergraduate programs.
3. Ensure competency in scholarship, research, and professional communication in all graduate programs and undergraduate programs where appropriate.
4. Promote the synthesis of academic knowledge and a Christian worldview in order that there might be a maturing of spiritual, intellectual, social and physical value-driven behavior.
5. Enable students to engage in a major field of study in career-focused disciplines built on a solid foundation in the liberal arts.
6. Promote an understanding of the Western tradition and the diverse elements of American cultural history, especially the importance of the individual in maintaining democratic and free market processes.
7. Contribute to a knowledge and understanding of other cultures and of international events.
8. Encourage a commitment to the Christian life, one of personal integrity, sensitivity to the needs of others, social responsibility and active communication of the Christian faith, and, as it is lived out, a life that leads people to Jesus Christ as the Lord of the universe and their own personal Savior.
