

MyersMcRae

Required Supplemental Application Questions

Thank you for your interest in our search. In addition to the materials we have received from you, we request you submit responses to the following questions. Your responses will become part of your application materials and should be submitted AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. Your response is required in order for your application to be reviewed by the search committee. Brief responses are acceptable and, in fact, encouraged.

Your Name _____ Date _____

Search Position/Institution _____

1. In a few sentences, share why this opportunity is of particular interest to you. (We encourage you to include information on any connections you may have to the area and/or Institution.)
2. Are you presently employed? Y___ N___ If not, please explain briefly.
3. To whom do you currently report? _____
4. If you hold an academic position, indicate your current rank and tenure status:
___ Full Professor ___ Associate Professor ___ Assistant Professor ___ Instructor
Are you tenured? Y___ N___ If not, are you tenure track? Y___ N___
5. What are your salary expectations for this position? _____
6. What is your current salary (or salary range)? _____
7. Briefly describe the circumstances regarding your past three changes of employment.
8. Are you legally authorized to work in the United States? Y___ N___
9. Will you now (or in the future) require sponsorship for employment visa status, e.g., H-1B visa? Y___ N___
10. How did you become aware of this opportunity?
___ Myers McRae (Emailed announcement, Search Website, Advertisement)
___ Other (please explain) _____

Your Current Title and Institution _____

Preferred Email Address _____ Cell Phone Number _____

Our firm conducts extensive background and reference checks on candidates selected for finalist interviews. This includes online research and a review of social media. If you have questions on this, contact us at myersmcræ@myersmcræ.com.